Laval and Mussolini Talk Over Long Distance, Agreement Seen

'PEACE' CLAUSE OUT Formula at First Called 'Entirely Unacceptable' By Italian Envoy

Copyright 1935 by Associated Press
Geneva, Aug. 1.—A four-power conference to discuss settlement of the Italo-Ethiopian conflict may be held at Paris or Ventimiglia, Italy, next week, it was reported here today after Premier Benito Mussolini demanded modification of the Anglo-French peace formula draft. Long distance telephone conversation between Premier Laval of France and Mussolini brought Il Duce's demand for the proposed peace negotiations to arms during the peace negotiations. The formula was rejected. This optimism was expressed despite the fact that only a few hours earlier the Italian delegation (Please Turn to Page 2, Col. 5)

Loan Ruling Not Disastrous Here

Orange county farmers pay their bills. This was revealed today when local financiers and federal farm loan officials declared that so far no attempt has been made by any farmer to take advantage of the chattel mortgage clause in the California mortgage moratorium act of 1935 as it applies to crop loans.

Superior Judge Emmett Wilson ruled yesterday in Los Angeles that chattel mortgage provisions of the moratorium act are unconstitutional. He held that a moratorium on a mortgage on growing crops is unconstitutional because the postponement would extend the repayment period beyond the time crops would be harvested and sold, and such harvesting and sale would automatically deprive the lender of a part of his security.

1934 Loans Repaid
With several millions of dollars loaned on crops in this county, there has been no attempt to evade payment through recourse to the moratorium act, bankers and government officials said.

At the office of the Production Credit association, federal crop loan agency, it was said that there is at present approximately $500,000 loaned on 1935 crops. All loans made on the 1934 crop by that agency were repaid.

W. B. Williams, vice-president, and cashier of the First National bank, when informed of the ruling in Los Angeles, said that while there has been no disposition on (Please Turn to Page 2, Col. 6)

COUNTY FAIR RACE PLANS PROCEED

Directors Are to Seek Data on Bills Prior to Permit Request

STOCK SUBSCRIBED Board's Representative Going to Sacramento For Information

Plans for a 28-day racing season at Hansen in connection with a proposed revival of the Orange County fair have not been abandoned, it was learned following a meeting in Santa Ana last night of the Orange County fair association directors.

Two significant facts were revealed that point to the apparent intention of the association to go ahead with plans for the racing season if a permit is granted by the state racing commission, whether or not the state will assist in developing the track.

Directors of the association last night subscribed the full quota of $1000 in stock available in Orange County Fair, Inc., and decided to send a representative to Sacramento immediately. Members of the board of directors are planning to appear before the racing commission at an early date.

H. A. Lake of Garden Grove, chairman of the fair board, said the representative is being sent to Sacramento to learn the exact status of this and other fair associations relating to conducting horse races. He said that no one knows exactly what bills pertaining to the sport and to fairs were signed by Gov. Frank Merriam and what bills were vetoed. The directors decided to get definite information on this angle before their appearance before the racing commission.

RECORD HEAT BLAMED FOR 108 DEATHS

Kansas Town Scorches Under 111 Degrees; Others Feel 106

105 IN NEBRASKA South Dakota Showers Fail to Relieve, But Oregon Is Cool

By The Associated Press
Young August today inherited the simmering waves of heat that beset July through its month of existence.

A new recorded high for the year, 111 degrees, blistered Phillipsburg, Kan., on the final day of July, and Topeka, Kan., saw the mercury reach 106.

Reported heat deaths in 11 midwestern states reached 108. Nebraska had 19, Oklahoma 18, Minnesota 13, and Texas 10. Deaths reported from other states included: Kansas 9, Illinois and Missouri 8 each, Arkansas 7, Wisconsin 6 and Iowa 4.

In contrast to the brassy heat of the Midwest, Portland, Ore., had a cool top of 66 degrees. There were showers in Northern Nebraska and in South Dakota, but they served only to accentuate the heat. Lincoln, Neb., had 105 degrees maximum, and Pierre, S. D., 101.

It was 102 in Kansas City, Dodge City, Kan., Phoenix, Ariz., and Fairview and Waynoka, Okla.; Omaha and North Platte, Neb.; Wichita, Kan., and Fort Smith, Ark., had 100 degrees.

Other temperatures: Minneapolis and St. Louis, 98; Oklahoma City, 97; Indianapolis, Dallas and Des Moines, 96; Chicago 90; Denver and Milwaukee 88.

'Insanity' Rumor on F.D.R. Bared!

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1. (AP)—Efforts by a New Jersey advertising man to start a "whispering campaign" that President Roosevelt is insane were disclosed today by the senate lobby committee. E. P. Cramer, who described himself as an advertising man of Plainfield, N. J., and a small stockholder in the Electric Bond and Share company, testified he was "annoyed and chagrined that I had any connection with it."

"Are you ashamed?" asked Senator Schwelmbach (D., Wash.).

"Certainly." He said the suggestion was made as part of a program to defeat the New Deal. Questioned sharply by Chairman Black, the witness said he had "no basis" for believing the president was insane and that he had never seen him.

"Done Against Hoover" He added that the same thing was done "against Hoover" by Charles Michelson, democratic publicity chief.

"Who said he was crazy?" Black asked. "Mr. Michelson." "Do you swear that?" "No," Cramer replied laughing. Cramer said at first his suggestion had not been carried out. It was developed that in the past few weeks a "whispering campaign" (Please Turn to Page 2, Col. 6)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1. (AP)—Working rapidly toward agreement, house and senate conferees on the AAA amendment bill tentatively agreed today to accept senate provisions permitting suits for recovery of processing taxes, and for restoration of the export debenture program.

The agreements on these two provisions, together with yesterday's agreement to strike out all price fixing provisions, eliminated much of the disputed matter. It was explained that none of the conferees' actions could be finally accepted until the return of Chairman Smith (D., S. C.) by the senate agriculture committee, one of the conferees.

Agreement by the house conferees to accept the senate provision permitting suits for recovery by processors who could prove they had not passed the tax on to producers or consumers was a setback to the administration. A flat prohibition against recovery of any processing taxes paid in the crop control program was sought by the administration and written into the house bill.

DEADLOCK ON MEASURE IS PREDICTED

President's Wishes Are Again Ignored; Vote Is 155 to 209

GETS 54 MAJORITY 'Orderly Execution or Mob Murder' Cited As Main Issue

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1. (AP)—Continuing its opposition to President Roosevelt's wishes, the house refused again today to accept the provision in the utility bill to abolish "unnecessary" holding companies, known as the "death sentence" clause. This action was taken in rejecting a motion by Chairman Rayburn of the interstate commerce committee to instruct house conferees on the legislation to agree to the section approved by the senate by a one-vote margin.

Deadlock Seen Rayburn said if his motion were rejected "we may not" complete action on the utility bill this session.

Representative Huddleston (D., Ala.) said the issue between the house and senate bills was "orderly execution or mob murder." The vote against the Rayburn motion was announced as 155 to 209. That was a majority of 54 against.

Previously the house rejected the abolition clause by a 70 vote majority. Today was the first time a roll call was taken, however.

Offers Motion Later Huddleston offered a motion to instruct the house conferees that they insist on a conference "under just fair conditions" and that they might insist if they see fit that no one be present other than conferees.

Speaker Byrnes overruled a point of order raised against the Huddleston motion by Representative Blanton (D., Tex.) with the declaration, "The chair hopes this house has the right to dictate the conduct of its members in conference."

First Paychecks Under New Budget Issued to Employees Today

The first pay checks to be issued under the 1935-36 budget for Santa Ana were received by city employees today. Nearly 100 employees received raises in salaries.

Firemen's salaries were increased $7.50 a month; police officers up to the rank of captain, were increased $5 per month. All city laborers who were receiving $3.60 per day have had their salaries increased to $4 a day. License inspectors were increased from $95 per month to $105 a month, and in other cases, the salaries of inspectors were increased from $100 per month to $115. The salary of the plumbing inspector was increased from $120 per month to $140 a month.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1. (AP)—Charges that a member of the senate civil service investigating committee had offered to trade its powers if Orfa Jean Shontz would join the Stewart-Collins faction on the state board of equalization were made today by State Controller Ray L. Riley.

Riley, who returned to the capital yesterday after a vacation in Mexico during which he was ousted as chairman of the board, claimed "the deal was in the making when I left for Mexico."

REPLY GIVEN GERMANY'S DIPLOMAT

Contents of Note Kept Secret as President Declines Comment

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1. (AP)—The state department's reply to the German government, giving assurance of an effort to prosecute persons who ripped the Nazi emblem from the liner Bremen, was believed ready for presentation today.

The diplomatic reply to a protest from the Reich government, will be handed to Dr. Rudolf Leitner, German charge d'affaires.

Contents Secret
While Acting Secretary William Phillips did not reveal the contents of the note, it was learned it will relate briefly the efforts of the New York police department to guard the German vessel and subdue the crowd last week.

The note also will point out that some of those who participated in the incident have been arrested. Whether the reply will contain an apology—which was not demanded—or an expression of regret, was not learned.

The German note of protest said the Bremen incident constituted an insult to Germany.

President Roosevelt at the semi-weekly press conference declined yesterday to comment on any phase of the incident. In connection with Jewish organizations' protest against the German government's religious attitude, the president indicated he considered the Acting Secretary Phillips' reply as having amply expressed the government's views.

This reply to the Jewish group expressed sympathy for anyone denied religious liberty.

RAPPING FOR ORDER

HUDSON TUNNEL NEAR END 'Sandhogs' Contact Friday

NEW YORK, Aug. 1. (AP)—Men, like moles, will meet tomorrow under one of the world's mightiest rivers.

On a back-breaking schedule which prohibits even a moment's respite, Manhattan's grimy "sandhogs" perspired today to couple together two snake-like tubes beneath the Hudson exactly at 1 p. m. Friday.

When they "hole through," they will have completed the initial bore of the new mid-town New York-to-New Jersey vehicular passage beneath the wide river.

By half-light, with the threat of death eternally at their elbow, the diggers have driven their moles from opposite sides of the Hudson with an accuracy of a fraction of an inch at a caisson off pier 79. They are three months ahead of the contract.

Completion of the tunnel, another link between New York and the West, will require some 18 months. Its cost is $37,000,000.

The tube will supplement two other arteries under and over the Hudson, the Holland tunnel touching lower Manhattan and the George Washington bridge at One Hundred Seventy-fifth street.

The new bore will touch the shore at Thirty-ninth street on the Manhattan side and Weehawken on the New Jersey side.

Settlement of a boundary dispute is sought in a suit started by the Rancho Santa Margarita, operators of Rancho Trabucco, one of the largest ranches in Orange county. The suits named the Whiting company, Jennie E. McFadden, Edwin F. Bandick and Mrs. Irene Bandick, Fred Bandick and Mrs. Jane Doe Bandick as owners of other properties involved in the action.

According to the complaint, the Whiting company owns the Rancho Canada de Los Alisos, adjoining the Rancho Trabucco. The Bandicks own another piece of property, formerly a portion of the Whiting company property, and Miss McFadden also owns a piece of property that formerly was a part of the Rancho Canada de Los Alisos. All of the property is contiguous to the Rancho Trabucco.

Alleging that an actual controversy exists over the boundary line between the Rancho Trabucco and other property, the court is asked to establish the true and legal boundary for all properties involved.

The murder charges were filed against Diaz after he had allegedly beaten to death Trinidad Arreaga, 40, of 1029 Logan street, on July 21. According to a story told officers by the allegedly confessed murderer, Diaz went to his home on the night of the slaying and found Arreaga in bed with his wife. He said he beat the man over the head with a lead pipe, and seriously injured his wife who was later taken to the county hospital for treatment.

Witnesses today testified they had heard a woman scream in the house, and had seen Mrs. Diaz run out of the front door with her husband behind. Diaz then re-entered the house, and sounds of blows were heard by the neighbors. Diaz, after taking his children to the home of a neighbor, went to the police station and gave himself up, saying that he had just killed a man.

SUSPECT DEALT TELLING BLOW

Testifying that Edward Tabor had agreed to support the family of her son while he was imprisoned for his share in the burning of a Huntington Beach apartment house in 1932, Mrs. Fanny McCallum, mother of John Rose, today dealt telling blows to the defense of Tabor and Jess Sibley. Tabor and Sibley are accused of conspiracy and arson in connection with the fire.

John Rose and Henry Eli, who are serving sentences in San Quentin following their conviction on arson charges, testified yesterday and Eli was expected to be called by the prosecution late today.

According to Mrs. McCallum, Tabor agreed to support her son's family, provide him with bail pending his trial and provide him with an attorney. Attempts of Mark L. Herron, chief of defense counsel, to shake her story failed.

Rose in his testimony said Tabor had agreed to pay him half of the $4000 insurance on the building for setting the fire. Rose later employed Eli and Sibley, according to his story, actually to set the fire, and agreed to pay each of them one-third of his share of the money. He testified that Tabor paid him only $175.

One deadline was set for September 1, by which time the arbitrators on the Italo-Ethiopian conciliation commission, who would resume their work, would be required to report to the league council.

Another Deadline
Another time limit was set for September 4, when the three powers and Ethiopia would be required to report their findings to the league council.

A formal council session, scheduled for late afternoon, was cancelled. The cancellation was interpreted as meaning more time was necessary to negotiate the difficult situation with Premier Mussolini. The council is expected to meet tomorrow.

ETHIOPIANS MASS TROOPS FOR WARFARE
Addis Ababa, Aug. 1. (AP)—Mass recruiting for the Ethiopian army began today in the capital.

The recruiting was preceded by a military review and a mass meeting in front of the ministry of war.

The action was taken following a war council by the high chiefs of Ethiopia, who were reported to have told Emperor Haile Selassie they believed "it may be too late now to prevent war."

F. D. R. SEES HOPE FOR ROW ADJUSTMENT
WASHINGTON, Aug. 1. (AP)—Hope for adjustment of the dispute between Italy and Ethiopia was expressed by President Roosevelt in a public statement today.

"At this moment," said the president, "when the council of the League of Nations is assembled to consider ways for composing by pacific means the differences that have arisen between Italy and Ethiopia, I wish to voice the hope of the people and the government of the United States that an amicable solution will be found and that peace will be maintained."

Had it been held constitutional, he said, it would have placed the lenders of money in a precarious position.

Roy V. Shafer, vice-president of the Orange County Title company, pointed out that despite the ruling of Judge Wilson in Los Angeles the decision will not be final until acted upon by the supreme court. That, he said, probably will require a year. His organization, he said, maintains the position that the entire moratorium act is unconstitutional in that it is class legislation through exempting federal loans or loans granted by the federal government.

3 CARS CRASH, EIGHT HURT

Eight persons were injured, none seriously, in a three-car accident at Chapman and Tustin avenues, near Orange, at 9:15 p. m. yesterday.

Orange police reported that a car driven by Paul Bailey of 311 East Washington street, Santa Ana, failed to make a boulevard stop, striking a machine driven by Archie Reiley of 613 North Pacific, Santa Ana, which in turn struck one driven by Homer Nelson of Route 1, Box 132, Huntington Beach.

Mr. Reiley, his wife, Josephine, and two small children were injured as the machine first struck overturned. Injured in the Nelson machine were Eleanor Henry of 810 West Pine street, Santa Ana; Margy Foster of 702 West Washington street, Santa Ana; Charles McDaniel of Route 4, Box 29, Huntington Beach, and Mr. Nelson.

All those injured were taken to the county hospital.

MORE ABOUT F. D. R. RUMOR

paign had been started that Mr. Roosevelt was in ill health.

In Excellent Health
Mr. Roosevelt laughingly took cognizance of it at a press conference. Newspapersmen generally sent out dispatches then that the president was in excellent health.

Cramer said he was not sure his efforts and the "whispering campaign" were "cause and effect."

"Didn't you suggest in March that a whispering campaign be started to convince the nation that the president was insane?" Black asked.

"I don't recall," Cramer, a middle aged man with closely cropped hair, replied.

Didn't you suggest that a whispering campaign be started?" "I suggested that as one of the matters that might be considered," Cramer replied in a low voice.

Quizzed About Letter
Cramer was a surprise witness. He was questioned about a letter he wrote to C. E. Groesbeck, chairman of Electric Bond and Share, suggesting the plan for beating the New Deal.

When Black first asked him about recommending a whispering campaign he flatly denied it.

He finally conceded it, however, when Black placed in the record a letter Cramer had written to Groesbeck March 28, saying in part:

"I suggest that the officers and directors of the company take the leadership in organizing the Security Holders of America for the purpose of destroying the New Deal and giving America sane and honest program in its place."

Meanwhile the house rules committee received testimony from Bernard B. Robinson, Chicago utilities official, that he had paid Robert Smith, Washington lawyer, $500 to teach him his way around Washington—how to use the congressional directory and the like.

$500 for "Teaching"
Robinson said he came to Washington, representing the Associated Gas and Electric company, to oppose the utilities bill.

Before the house committee, Robinson said he gave Smith the $500 "for legal work I would pay better lawyers a lot more money for."

"I was in Washington," he explained, "and he taught me how to use the congressional record, the names of secretaries, the mechanics of the ways and means committee, introduced me to a lot of people and so on."

25 Transients May Have Died In Train Wreck

WACO, Tex., Aug. 1. (AP)—Two bodies were found today in the wreckage of a Missouri-Kansas-Texas freight train and it was feared that from 7 to 25 men—mostly transients—may have lost their lives.

Several oil tank cars caught fire when the train was derailed near Bruceville, Tex., last night.

C. P. Carlisle, 21, of Waco, who said he boarded the train at Ranger, declared he saw at least 25 men in the cars which later piled up. He expressed the opinion all these were dead.

KANSAS MAY BOOST MARITAL TAXES

TOPEKA, Kas. (AP)—If present suggestions are carried out, not only Cupid's arrival but his departure will have to bear an increased tax burden in Kansas.

Searching for possible additional revenue, the state research bureau legislative council suggests hiking marriage license fees from $3.50 to $4 and setting up a $2 fee for divorce registrations.

Under cross-examination Armfield hotly denied charges by Mr. Ryan that he had been placed in the "tank" by Herman Zabel, head of the identification bureau, to secure evidence against Richardson.

He declared that he gave the information to Mr. Zabel of his own free will but declined to give his reasons for turning informer.

He admitted that he feared to return to the jail because of anticipated reprisal on the part of prisoners for his testimony.

POETRY READING IS FEATURED ON BOOK REVIEW TEA

A poetry rendezvous brought together nearly 50 persons at the Unitarian church yesterday afternoon to the summer book review tea.

Opening the program, Mrs. Gabelle Stevens Sharp gave a group of her poems from memory, responding to an encore.

Sonnets, and a geographical biography of herself through poetry, were presented by Miss Aurelia Koch. Chester Wafford, whose poetry Paul Veley read, rose to acknowledge the applause of the group on his writings.

To show contrast, Mrs. Mabel Marks of Upland read the first poem she had ever sold, a verse to the "Woman's Home Companion," and the last one she has written which is to appear soon in the Christian Register. "Cathedral Poem" and "Day in Nice" were other selections she presented.

Frances Crawford (Mrs. Robert Hugh Orr) of Nebraska read a group of brilliant stanzas.

Three numbers, "Romance" by Debussy; "The Swan," by Saint Saens, and "Minuet from E Flat Symphony" by Mozart, were played by the Elwood Band string trio composed of Audrey Granas, Beatrice Granas, and Anna May Archer.

Assisting Mrs. Herbert Birt in serving the tea were Mrs. Paul Vissman and Miss Marguerite Baker.

Mrs. Mae B. Geeting will read a play at the next tea, scheduled for August 14.

Hall, enrolled in the school of merchandising, was one of 27 U. S. C. students who achieved a perfect academic record of no grade less than "A." John W. McFarland and Helen E. Wiesseman were among 231 Trojan undergraduates who made no grade less than "B."

A close race for academic laurels was staged between the men and women. The Trojan coeds led the men 123 to 108 in the no grade less than "A" classification, while the men had a decided edge in the all "A" division, placing 18 of their number against nine for the women.

Both Mrs. Wiesseman and McFarland are members of the class of '36.

FIRST CHILD BORN TO WM. SYLVESTERS

Mr. and Mrs. William Sylvester of 318 East Pine street announced the arrival this morning of their first child, a baby girl, born at St. Joseph's hospital.

The baby weighed seven pounds. Mrs. Sylvester is the former Frankie Fern McDonald, past honored queen of Job's Daughters, while Mr. Sylvester was prominent in De Molay activities.

Townsend club No. 7 will hold an ice cream social at the Christian church, Orange and McFadden streets, from 6 to 7:30 o'clock tomorrow evening. Lentz's orchestra will play. F. L. Carrier will speak.

WANTED: ONE GALLEON! Museum Needs Model of Ship

Mrs. F. E. Coulter, curator at the Bowers Museum, would like to have a galleon. A galleon, she explained, was the type of ship used by the early Spaniards who first explored the coast of California.

Mrs. Coulter does not want a life-size galleon, only a model, preferably between 18 and 20 inches in length.

The galleon is needed to complete a series of models depicting the progress of transportation in California. The models will be placed in a large case among other exhibits of a similar nature in a room devoted chiefly to a study of California's progress.

Besides the display of models, several maps are being prepared to denote the development of the state. The first map in the series will show the state divided according to Indian tribes. Others will show later territorial developments. Present plans, based upon the progress of collections for the museum, call for opening the building to the public about September 16. Mrs. Coulter announced.

HE'S HAPPY WORKING AT 81! Santa Anan Finds Life Good

By ELLEN SNEBLEY

How many really happy people do you know?

I've suspected it for a long, long time, and after interviewing S. L. Wedgewood, 829 Cypress avenue, I'm sure that I know at least one.

Remembering that Mr. Wedgewood will be 81 on Aug. 13, that he has been working for 65 years and is still healthy, willing and able to tackle any task from building a house to fixing a doll's arm or making a gas engine, I sat down in the garage workshop of his home and popped at him the question, "Are you happy?"

"There isn't anyone in the world who gets more enjoyment out of living than I do," was the ready reply.

He's Been Content

"Why haven't you become bored with working, and why do you enjoy living?" I persisted.

"All my life I've been creating wealth—things worth something—for the other fellow. I've been content, too, with what I've had," Mr. Wedgewood said.

The garage was lined and festooned with evidences of the Santa Anan's liking for work. On a bench was the framework of a baby carriage waiting to be turned into a red wheeled wagon. Near the door stood a neat wooden desk complete with drawers and pigeonholes, ready for a coat of paint. A roll of screen suggested that someone's windows were due for refurbishing. And rows of paint cans, tools and homemade gadgets of all sorts suggested the variety of problems that come to the little shop to be solved.

"Being able to do more than one thing is important in life," Mr. Wedgewood declared. "A man with a profession who loses his job is out of luck. One who can do many things is never afraid of being without work."

"A man with a single string to his fiddle makes poor music in the world."

RURAL ROUTE EXTENSIONS IN EFFECT TODAY

Extensions over four of the rural routes of the Santa Ana postoffice became effect today as the result of an order recently received from Washington, Postmaster T. E. Stephenson announced. The extensions add a total of 14½ miles to the existing rural route system.

The Santa Ana office has also received permission to extend city delivery service to residents on Louise street between Washington avenue and Eighth street, and on Flower street from Santa Clara avenue to Nineteenth street.

MINISTERS DEBATE AGAIN TOMORROW

The Rev. Sibyl Mae Archer, co-pastor of the Santa Ana Four-square church, will meet the Rev. Floyd Thompson, pastor of the Church of Christ, in their second debate tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock at the Foursquare church, Fairview and Sycamore streets.

The debate question is: "Resolved: That the Bible teaches that the gifts of the spirit and divine healing are for today." The Rev. Mrs. Archer will take the negative, opposing the Rev. Mr. Thompson.

The Rev. Mrs. Archer announced that she will pray for the sick at the close of the debate.

Meet Your Neighbor

The Journal's Compilation of "Orange County People You Should Know."

Name: Henry Walker.
Occupation: Retail merchant.

Where were you born? Garber, Okla.

What has been the most interesting event of your life to date? A trip to New York and through the eastern states nearly 10 years ago.

What career would you recommend for a young man starting out for himself today? Criminology.

What is your favorite department or feature in The Journal? I like the front page in particular.

Your second choice? The sports page.

What should be the United States government's next major step?

Get away from the alphabetical form of government, and let the people govern themselves with federal assistance when necessary.

What one thing does Santa Ana need most?

A large public park. Santa Ana is the largest city in the county, yet, for some reason, has the poorest parks.

How can Orange county be improved?

By developing Newport Harbor even further than present plans now call for.

One sentence interview: Right in line with the harbor question, I would like to say that the greatest thing that could happen to Orange county would be a completed governmental project which would enlarge the harbor to such an extent that it could be used commercially.

FAMILY SUES FOR $35,182 DAMAGES

Damages totalling $35,182 are asked in a suit started in superior court by Eunice Vice, Edna Vice, Rose L. Vice and Edward W. Vice against William Mumby. The damages are for injuries the quartet is alleged to have sustained in an automobile accident July 12 on Huntington Beach boulevard.

Eunice Vice is asking $25,082; Edna Vice, $2,500; Rose L. Vice, $5,000, and Edward Vice, $2,600. According to the complaint, Mr. Vice was driving his car when it was struck by the automobile driven by Mr. Mumby. The Vice car was pushed from the highway and turned over.

MANY ENTRIES RECEIVED FOR KAYAK MEET AT HARBOR SATURDAY

TELL AWARDS FOR BOAT REGATTA

Santa Barbara Girls to Enter Many Events in Annual Tourney

NEWPORT BEACH.—An imposing array of 107 medals and eight trophies are being offered to the individual and team winners in the second annual Southern California Kayak regatta at Newport Bay Saturday afternoon. Competition will be held in 28 events, with all distances being measured in meters to correspond with Olympic Games qualifications.

Races for boys and girls from 50 meters to 10,000 meters, relay races, tilting, stunting and obstacle races will be included on the program. Entries have been received from Long Beach, Fullerton, Santa Monica, Santa Barbara, Huntington Beach, Newport Beach and Balboa Beach. All kayakers must be constructed of wood and canvas only. The races will start at 1 p. m. in the bay just south of Lido island. Several events will be held in the ocean.

Committees Told
Committee members in charge of the regatta are Rollin A. Marsden of Fullerton, Harry Welch of Newport Beach, W. H. Austin of Santa Barbara, Frank Hohm of Santa Monica, Frank W. Crocker of Balboa, Frank Davenport of Long Beach and J. A. Siegel, M. Jungheit and Ralph K. Reed of Newport Beach.

Feminine pulchritude will be in evidence at the regatta Saturday as representatives of the girls' Kayak club of Santa Barbara will compete in many of the events. It was announced today by W. H. Austin, in charge of the northern delegation.

STATE HEADS ARE CCC VISITORS

SAN CLEMENTE.—Guy Fleming, superintendent of state parks; P. Primm and L. Brandt, inspectors, and Dan Hall, procurement officer, dined and spent the evening at the San Clemente camp recently, according to Robert C. Coner, camp superintendent. Later the party motored to Palomar mountain.

A quarter-inch scale model for the custodian's plan to be constructed at a future date at Doheny Beach state park, has just been completed and is on display at the San Clemente camp.

The model is struck from a full-sized scheme of buildings and grounds, including pergolas, gates, trees and shrubbery.

Isador Steinhart of the San Clemente camp designed and made the model.

Leonard Pease, from the department of interior, showed moving pictures of the national parks last night. Such special features are part of the educational program sponsored by CCC officials.

MEET WIFE

Mrs. Norman Thomas

In socialist party meetings words often are heated, dissension over Marxian theories frequent... but there is always one calm person... Mrs. Norman Thomas, wife of the national party leader. . . . Probably she will be in a far corner knitting away on a sweater for one of her children... but she misses nothing. . . . She follows events keenly. . . . seldom speaks out. Before the world war, Mrs. Thomas helped organize New York City's first clinic for treatment of tuberculars. . . . engaged in this work she met Thomas, then a Presbyterian minister. . . . Joined the socialist party with him when the war came. . . . actively engaged in the socialist movement. . . . has been with her husband in all his campaigns. . . . Supervises a large household at her home in Cold Spring Harbor, Long Island. . . . raises cocker spaniels. . . . many blue ribbon winners. . . . She does it to make money to help support the family. . . . and does.

STRIKERS' WIVES HECKLE AT PLANT

The New York Shipbuilding plant at Camden, N. J., was reopened, but strikers generally did not go back to work, making the peace effort a failure. These women are making life lively for police with their heckling.

H. B. WAR VETS TO INSTALL

HUNTINGTON BEACH.—Newly-elected officers of Huntington Beach Joseph Rodman post of the American Legion will be installed at a special ceremony tonight in Memorial hall. A team from the Orange county 40 and 8 organization, headed by Ray Smith of Anaheim, grand conductor, will officiate at the installation.

Officers to be installed are Roy F. Patrick, replacing Dr. P. E. Sheehan as commander; William T. Hunter, first vice commander; Harold Spafford, second vice commander; Raymond Elliott, finance officer; Peter Naley, sergeant-at-arms; Harlen Reid, chaplain; Dr. P. E. Sheehan, historian; and William N. Cookerly, adjutant.

PENSION CLUB PLANS MEETING AT GARDEN GROVE

GARDEN GROVE.—A social meeting has been planned for the next Monday evening meeting of the Garden Grove Townsend club of the Legion hall. Refreshments will be served. All members of the advisory board of the club are requested to attend a meeting to be held Friday evening at the hall.

An unusually large attendance was present for the meeting this week when Arthur M. Ross, business analyst and adviser, was speaker. In addition three cornet numbers were given by A. D. Brownell, accompanied by Miss Onetia Ames.

Mr. and Mrs. Anton M. Friis of 596 North Euclid avenue, entertained a number of guests recently. In the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. called and enjoyed several card games and were served refreshments. Guests for an evening dinner were their son, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Friis and son, James, of Anaheim and their houseguest, Miss Emma Skinner of Cretson, Ia. Calling in the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Richards and son, Teddy and Mrs. D. T. Rick and daughter, Vera, of Long Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Parker and son and daughter of Boston, Mass., arrived this week and expect to make their home with Mrs. Parker's parents, the Rev. and Mrs. H. B. Spayd.

Miss Mabel Head purchased a four-room house in Long Beach recently and this week had it moved to her property on East Acacia street. A room will be added and the house redecorated and she will make her home there.

Miss Ella Louise Humphrey of Sunnyside Gardens has returned from a three-week visit with friends in San Diego.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Mitchell and daughter, Ruth Leslie, plan to spend next week camping at South Fork.

MIDWAY CITY WOMAN RECOVERS FROM INJURIES

MIDWAY CITY.—Mrs. Vera Taylor Beno, who was painfully burned on the face by an explosion while canning, is recovering and expects to start on her vacation this week. During her absence Community church choir practice will be held at the C. R. Hart home on Roosevelt street.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Harlow, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Hazard and Clayton Van Steenberg attended the monthly dinner of the Associated Chambers of Commerce at Laguna Beach Tuesday night.

Frederic March Hooks Large Torpedo Shark

NEWPORT BEACH.—Frederic March, 20th century film star, brought in a 750-pound torpedo shark here yesterday afternoon after an hour and 10-minute battle with light tackle. He was fishing from Jess Skeen's boat, "Georgia M," in company with Mr. and Mrs. Gregg Toland. Mr. Toland is the ace cameraman for the 20th Century company.

Besides bringing in the largest catch of the season to date, the party hooked two large albacore, each weighing 20 pounds.

KANSAS VISITORS HONORED AT GARDEN GROVE

GARDEN GROVE.—A group of former Kansas friends of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Hamilton of Fowler, Kans., were invited by the Rev. and Mrs. Grover Ralston and family to renew their friendship at dinner here recently. Mr. Hamilton, the Sunday school superintendent when Rev. Ralston was pastor at the Ensign, Kans., Methodist church, with his wife, have been visiting a daughter and her family at Uplands and expect to return to their home soon.

Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Culver and family, Mr. and Mrs. Howard A. Brown and family of Santa Ana, Mr. and Mrs. George Culver and family of Uplands, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Sutter and family and Mr. and Mrs. Ira Culver of Monterey Park; the Rev. and Mrs. Paul Younger and two sons and Mrs. Mattie Haywood.

LANTERN CONTEST SLATED TONIGHT AT CYPRESS

CYPRESS.—Playgrounds will be lighted here tonight when children of the community engage in a lantern contest, sponsored by Edward Teaney, playground director. The contest calls for all types of lanterns, and entrants are expected to show up with models of trains, comic strips and many other subjects.

The last competition staged here was a pet stock show, in which 40 entries were received and Reva Fridley received first prize. Leonard Smith took second prize and judge for the contest was C. R. Gerrard.

PATTERN 5169

Somewhat the stars have intrigued the needlewoman since earliest times. Whether it was a quilt or a bit of crochet, it was so often used. In this star medallion, crocheted in string, the effect of the joined medallions is especially lovely. The stars, in a close stitch contrast with the more open background. Chair backs, buffet and vanity sets, scarfs, bedspreads, tea cloths are some of the lovely accessories you can add to your home with this medallion. It is so easy, you will soon know it by heart and you know how quickly you can make them!

In pattern 5169 you will find complete instructions for making the medallion and joining it to make a variety of articles; illustration of it and of all stitches used; material requirements.

To obtain this pattern send 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) to Santa Ana Journal Household Arts Department, 117 East Fifth street, Santa Ana, Calif.

ORANGE LIONS SEE MAGICIAN

ORANGE.—W. S. Lentz acted as president of the Lions' club at the luncheon meeting at the American Legion hall yesterday. Roy N. Edwards served as program chairman, introducing Carl E. Zamloch, who performed feats of magic. The program was secured through the efforts of Ray Van Wagoner of Anaheim.

A social hour with refreshments was enjoyed by Betty Harper, Anna Tournavacca, Hazel and Bernice Doyle, Polly Wardlow, Nellie May Blum and Mary Ellen Fitz, a new member. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Doyle.

UMBRELLA IS POOR SAIL

LAGUNA BEACH.—Sometimes it's better to let go than be brave and hang on. That's what young Jack Kerrigan, 11, thought yesterday when his new rowboat, "Jackie," spilled him and Virginia Skidmore, 12, into the briny deep about 200 yards off the end of the pier.

The two young people started off from Divers' Cove with Jack rowing and when but a short distance he opened up a big beach umbrella to use as a sail.

Everything went fine for a while. They zoomed through the water, out beyond the help bed, finally reaching the pier. Quite a distance farther out a sudden gust of wind caught the improvised sail the wrong way and over they went into the water. Jack wishes now that he had let go of the umbrella sooner.

Three lifeguards from the beach, Valmar Cochran, Orville Skidmore and Curtiss Burns, sped to the rescue in a boat. Also Bill Walter, guard at Divers' Cove, was promptly notified and rowed to the scene. He righted the boat with the aid of the outer guards and sent the dampened young couple on their way again, safe, but a trifle scared.

Jack Kerrigan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Kerrigan of Hollywood, who were on the beach at the time of the accident. Virginia Skidmore is the sister of Orville Skidmore, lifeguard.

U. S. A. CLUB OF ORANGE HAS BEACH MEETING

ORANGE.—Members of the U. S. A. club were entertained at the beach home of Mrs. Paul Ris, at Newport recently. A noon picnic lunch was served and swimming and beach games were enjoyed during the afternoon.

Guests at the outing were Mrs. Lee Ward, Mrs. Walter Lovell and daughter, Geraldine; Mrs. Hal Brown, Mrs. Alvin Clifford and son, Robert; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wood and sons, Franklin and Arthur; Mrs. Henry Campbell, Mrs. Earl Campbell, Mrs. Bertha Youngs of Fullerton, Mrs. Marion Flippin and son, Jimmie; Mrs. W. W. Perkins and sons, Leon George and John.

Guests were Mrs. Harry Hoover and daughters, Dorothy and Joan of Shenandoah, Ia., house guests of Mrs. Henry Campbell, Mrs. Earl Campbell, Mrs. Bertha Youngs of Fullerton, Mrs. Marion Flippin and son, Jimmie; Mrs. W. W. Perkins and sons, Leon George and John.

Mrs. W. S. Wallace returned yesterday to her home on South Glassell street, after spending two weeks at Balboa.

TWO BOYS HELD BY LAGUNA POLICE

LAGUNA BEACH.—Two boys are being held in juvenile court on a charge of purse-snatching, after being picked up by local police, according to Chief Abe W. Johnson.

Alice Van Norman was resting on the beach in front of Casa del Camino hotel when her purse, containing $25 was snatched from under her coat by one of the boys.

The youths' parents, in Los Angeles, have been notified.

PLAN DEPOT AT HUNTINGTON BEACH

HUNTINGTON BEACH.—Possibility of a new Pacific Electric railway depot in Huntington Beach was indicated here today when a meeting was called for next Monday between railroad officials and chamber of commerce officials.

If plans for the new building are accepted, it will be built in the same architectural style as the new casino, for which plans have been completed on the ocean front. The present depot was constructed in the early days of the community by Henry E. Huntington, pioneer developer of the district.

GROUP TELLS THEME FOR TOURNEY

Colors of Spain Chosen For Lights Regatta On Newport Bay

NEWPORT BEACH.—Glory of the Spanish dons in California will be revived by this year's Tournament of Lights at Newport Beach August 24 with selection today of the brilliant national colors of Spain, red and yellow, to bet the dominating color scheme of the evening's entertainment. All entrants will be urged to stress a lavish outlay of color, with the red and yellow foremost, according to J. A. Beek, general chairman of the tournament, and chamber of commerce officials.

Flashing shafts of color from five batteries of giant army searchlights placed at strategic positions about the harbor will create illuminated pyramids over the parade of ships in the bay.

Assurance of an imposing array of entries was made today as word was received that the city of Pasadena has definitely entered several large floats representing civic organizations and a number of smaller craft from various clubs. Santa Barbara promises to bring the giant swan, which won the sweepstakes last year, but will put on a new set of feathers. Many organizations in Long Beach, including the chamber of commerce, have also sent reservations.

Since commercial craft are barred this year, the "strictly Corinthian" motif will bring nearly twice as many entries, tournament officials predict. The "Corinthian" idea was instituted to return the program to the individual ship owners and pilots of Southern California.

Dredging operations have been completed over the five-mile course which the parade will follow. Boats drawing ten feet of water may navigate in safety for the first time in the history of the tournament. The parade will line up in the entrance channel, pass north by the east side of Balboa and Lido islands, and return south parallel to Bay avenue and past the Newport and Balboa Yacht clubs.

HAS TWO WIVES, SAY WOMEN

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 1. (AP)—Gordon E. MacDonald, a debonaire 40-year-old man of alleged Don Juan propensities, today had another week in which to answer charges of two women that he married both without bothering about the formality of an intervening divorce.

MacDonald faced his two "wives" in municipal court here and heard them tell of their marriage to him. When they had completed their stories the court granted MacDonald until August 4 to prepare his preliminary hearing defense to bigamy charges.

Mrs. Marie Hadaller MacDonald, who married MacDonald in Waterloo, Ill., last March, testified she "had no idea" he already was married. The other woman, Mrs. Elizabeth MacDonald of Dallas, Tex., said she and MacDonald were married in Memphis, Tenn., in 1928 and that they lived there several years.

The two Mrs. MacDonalds motored here together from the midwest and are living together at a hotel.

PACIFIC FORTS MAY BE ADDED

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1. (AP)—Secretary Swanson has disclosed that the navy is considering fortifying additional possessions in the Pacific after December 31, 1936, and construction of additional warships to meet naval increases of foreign powers.

At a press conference Swanson emphasized, however, there was no intention to increase the number of Pacific bases until after expiration of the Washington treaty.

HALF-MOON EARRINGS

LONGCHAMP. (AP)—Gold half-moon earrings appeared in the president's box one afternoon during the big racing season. They were displayed by a smart Parisian who wore a black crepe frock splashed with gay nose-gays and a big black beret whose top was entirely covered with black aigrettes.

So. Calif. Bantam Champ Fights National Flyweight Ruler Tonight

Column Left!

By FRANK ROGERS

Things you might not have known if we hadn't felt in mood for musing:

Half of the Huntington Beach night ball players are Journal subscribers.

Alvin Rebohn probably will get that coaching-stockroom job at Santa Ana junior college.

That Nick Lutz-Vincent Lopez rematch for Monday night is definitely signed. All the big grapples are anxious to show here since Sam Sampson's showplace has become the current Palace to the wrestling game.

Max Schmeling's plea for $150,000 to fight in America is the laugh of the century among the promoters. Schmeling must really have thought himself a morsel at that price.

Vic Walker, who still knows more about the game than most of us, was the town's first sports editor. Y'ars and y'ars ago. You can still learn a basketful of news about sports in a half hour's talk with Vic.

Tommy Lacy, the Stars' stellar infielder, is not going to play football for El Dons after all. Lacy will work for Vic Walker this fall and Vic says as to how he is going to have to get out Saturday afternoons himself to see the game. So Tommy, who Vic thinks has slight chance of making the eleven anyway, will be left to keep shop. And save himself for basket ball where he already excels.

Boxing fans will see two champions at the local arena tonight. Lupe Cordoza, who made a brilliant appearance here in stopping Young Frenchy Chacon, takes on Johnny Alguire, national amateur flyweight king.

Cy Williams who subdued Bill Hoalahan, here Monday night, is one of the roughest rascals in the game. His tactics started a riot in San Francisco recently. Police had to rescue him from frenzied fans.

How many wrestling fans who go week after week are convinced in their own minds that the matches are "fixed"? Joe Steele asked us that one Monday night and we told him our guess was about 85 per cent. He thought it much lower but we refuse to knock our figure down. Paradoxically enough the fans who are faithful followers often share this view quite strongly. But they admit the show is worth the price.

Nothing is as uncertain as a baseball player. Ed (Slow Time) Bryan, traded by Portland to Seattle for his poor showing, won his first three starts for the Indians.

Calaveras county of hopping toad fame has a rival. Bakersfield, where we always thought it too warm for any other than human lives, is planning a toad tourney. Horned toads will race under the "godadance" of the Veterans of Foreign wars, August 8.

Newport Beach, usually the mecca of sailboats, stages a new kind of regatta this Saturday when 30 events are slated in the Annual Southern California kayak regatta. These kayakers are tin versions of the native one-and-two-seater affairs.

Tustin and Garden Grove, among other Orange Prep league teams, will sport new football togs this fall. Tustin will be dressed in black, Garden Grove in red.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 1. (AP)—With 15 victories to his credit against two losses, Sam Gibson, San Francisco right-hander, today remained the leading hurler in the Coast League.

Glenn Gabler, Angel hurler, with 11 wins and two defeats, and Wyn Ballou, moundmate of Gibson, with 14 wins and four losses, ranked second and third respectively, in averages, including games of Tuesday, July 30.

CORDOZA TO BATTLE U.S. CHAMPION

Well Balanced Card At Sam Sampson's Arena Slated Tonight

Headlined by Lupe Cordoza, Southern California bantamweight champion, and Johnny Alguire, National Amateur Athletic Union flyweight titleholder, who will battle four rounds in the top spot, what appears to be the best-balanced program of county's boxing season will be offered fans at Promoter Sam Sampson's Highway 101 arena at 8:30 tonight.

Cordoza, who only barely missed grabbing the state title in San Francisco a few weeks ago, is a popular drawing card at the Los Angeles Olympic amateur fights where he consistently works on the top spot. In a previous appearance here he set back Young Frenchy Chacon, an impressive boxer, in a four-round punching duel.

Everett Jure, the fast and clever featherweight from Ontario, goes in against the hard-punching Westminster Indian, Tomahawk Sanchez, in the semi-windup for 128 pounds. And in the special event, Art Arroya, the Mexican favorite from Westminster, faces the rough Fritz Jackson of Huntington Park.

Middleweights On
Tino Munzo, an aggressive mid-deweight, makes a start against a wild-swinging Huntington Park boy, George Guerrero.

Lieut. Jack Kennedy, considered the best referee in the state, may appear at the club tonight in an unofficial capacity. He will be unable to referee because of a rule which prohibits an official from working two programs a week. Lieut. Kennedy officiated at another club Tuesday night.

Other Battles
Other fighters on the eight-bout program follow:

Tony Torres, Santa Ana, vs. Al Green, Huntington Park, 135 pounds.

Jimmy Dugan, Ontario, vs. Wildman Mesa, Anaheim, 140 pounds.

Johnny Garcia, Ontario, vs. Jess Dolan, Huntington Park, 128 pounds.

Merced Jimenez, Placentia, vs. Jimmy Brown, Ontario, 118 pounds.

Games Tonight
7:30 o'clock—First National Bank vs. Union Oil.
8:30 o'clock—Elks vs. 20-30 club.

Like a bolt from the blue above, those pesky Carpenters struck down the M. E. South Seniors, 9-8, in an extra-inning affair at the Municipal bowl last night, eliminated Lester Slaback's shocked Methodist, and handed the Santa Ana City league's second-half softball title to the 20-30's on a silver platter.

Win, lose or draw in their struggle with the Elks at the Sixth and Flower street stadium at 8:30 o'clock tonight, the 20-30's have clinched the right to face the first-half champion Elks in the titular play-off series next week.

The titular series will be a three-out-of-five game affair, opening Monday night. Other dates have been set for August 8, 12, 15 and 19. There will be a nominal admission charge to help defray expenses for a banquet honoring the 1935 champion, President Kenneth Morrison said.

The well-earned victory of the Carpenters, their only one of the season, was the most stunning upset on the 35 schedule. The nail-pounders caught up with the Methodist, 4-4, in the third, and came from behind on two other occasions, 6-6 and 8-8. Catcher Gunn led off with a single, and first-baseman Collins scored on a throwaway to score Gunn with the deciding run in the eighth—an extra inning.

The Carpenters annexed 13 hits, including a home run by Standifer and doubles by Gunn, Bagwell and D. Lorton. Southpaw Jim Haynes and the Methodist fanned 10 of them, but his teammates collected only four hits for him.

Edward Bristow, Tustin star, struck out 17 while his Commercial National bank team defeated the M. E. South Juniors, 6-4. But Bristow's ineptitude, announced last week, automatically awarded the Methodist a 9-0 forfeit.

3-FOR-25 WORLD SERIES? Chicago Fans May Get Break

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

New York baseball fans may talk of a five-cent world series, but in Chicago there is a strong feeling that it will be a three-for-a-quarter affair with the elevated and not the subway providing the chief mode of transportation.

Once, in 1906, the Sox and Cubs met to decide baseball supremacy with the late Fielder Jones leading the American leaguers to a 4-to-2 triumph in games over the National league team, managed by Frank Chance.

Have New Hopes
Now they have hopes again with the Cubs only a half-game back of the pro-settling New York Giants in the National league and the White Sox only a half game out of second place and three and one-half games to the rear of the Detroit Tigers in the junior circuit.

The Cubs had a golden opportunity yesterday when the Giants lost to the Phillies, but the best they could do was a split in a doubleheader with the Pittsburgh Pirates. They won the opener, 4 to 2 with Roy Henshaw out-

SEATTLE, Aug. 1. (AP)—Vince Dundee, Baltimore, former middleweight champion, was billed today for a round or two in a hospital.

Dundee, suffering from brain concussion in addition to the fractured jaw, apparently was coming out of the fog all right. Steele broke Dundee's jaw during their bout here Tuesday night when the veteran lost on a technical knock-out midway in the third of 10 scheduled rounds.

BOSTON, Aug. 1. (AP)—Emil Fuchs, colorful president of the Boston Braves for the past 10 years, was forced today to vacate his office to silent and tactful Bill McKennie, his manager since 1930.

Fuchs had until today to regain control of the club by obtaining 9500 shares of stock from Charles F. Adams, his vice president. He announced yesterday that he was unable to do so and bowed to Adams' "pay up or get out by August 1" ultimatum.

Gould Says U.S. Talent Wasting Away; Hopes For Davis Win Gone

By ALAN GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editorial

NEW YORK, Aug. 1. (AP)—After eight fruitless years in quest of the Davis cup, which France snatched from America in 1927, the United States is removed further than ever from a real prospect of recovering the famous international tennis trophy.

False hopes have been erected annually, only to come tumbling down, leaving only dissatisfaction but frequent bitterness in their wake. It's about time the U. S. A. dominant on the courts for nearly a post-war decade, quit "kidding" itself, discarded alibis and faced the truth.

The salient facts, in retrospect, are that since 1927, America has taken only four singles matches in six challenge round flings. Three of these were gained by big Bill Tilden, the other by Ellsworth Vines. England made a clean sweep of the singles this year and last.

Plenty of Talent
This country has more tennis-playing talent, per capita, than any other nation. It has adequate facilities and coaching for the development of younger players. Tournament play is conducted throughout the year.

Why, with all this apparent opportunity and inspiration, can't the United States develop a team capable of picking up where little Bill Johnson and big Bill Tilden left off?

The answer seems two-fold: First, that no sustained, long-range Davis cup plan of operations has been formulated; second, that America's class of top-flight players has proved erratic, undependable or too receptive to professional inducements.

The United States Lawn Tennis association may have been guilty of too much optimism. It may have used bad judgment in making some team selections. But please turn to page 6.

ANGEL BANDIN FOURTH PLACE

By the Associated Press
"Dutch" Reuther and company, in Seattle, are offering up thanks to the weather man today.

Whoever controls the coming and going of the rain in the northwest, ably assisted by the San Francisco Seals, placed the Indians momentarily in undisputed possession of third place, a half game ahead of Los Angeles in the Pacific coast league baseball scramble.

The Seals beat Los Angeles, 6 to 5, while the Seattle-Oakland game was rained out. Oakland slid into a tie with the Angels for fourth.

Joe Di Maggio drove a liner over the left-field fence with two men aboard, to give the Seals their advantage. Kenny Sheehan, frail San Francisco southpaw, stepped into the pitcher's box in the fifth with the batters bulging and retired three Angels in order.

Fred Berger, Mission left fielder, drove a long fly out into right field in the last of the ninth inning, to bring Oscar Eckhardt home from first with the winning run, as the Reds took their second straight game from Hollywood, 5 to 4. The Stars tied things up in the eighth when Ray Jacobs drove a screamer in the pitcher's box, which Hollis Thurston was unable to handle, bringing in Cedric Durst with the tying counter.

Jake Wade allowed but six hits and struck out five batters as Portland defeated Sacramento, 6 to 0. The win pulled the Beavers up to .500, leaving only Sacramento and Hollywood outside the charmed circle.

FIVE MILLIONS TO BE SPENT TIGHTENING U. S. TAX COLLECTION

3-FOLD DRIVE OUTLINED BY PRESIDENT

Little Fellow to Get Income Checking in Huge Survey

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1. (AP)—President Roosevelt today allotted $5,112,125 of work relief funds to the treasury department for a three-fold drive to tighten up on tax collecting.

Included will be an intensive checkup on income tax returns of the "little fellow," and a drive against "evasions" of liquor taxes. White-collar jobs will be employed in the work. Officials said they hoped the studies would bring increased tax revenues.

Two Million for Survey
The largest allotment was $2,448,390 for a survey of delinquent taxes and "nuisance" tax collection in 20 large cities. The bureau of internal revenue also received $1,577,894 to check small income tax returns; and $1,086,941 for a nationwide study of retail liquor tax evasions.

Two other white-collar projects also received funds, the census bureau getting allotments of $1,804,948 for an alphabetical index of the 1930 census, and $293,000 to determine any improvement in retail trade during the past two years. The census index is to be used in the government's old-age pension program.

White Collar Jobs
Coincidentally, Corrington Gill, assistant Works Progress administrator, announced that a large number of other surveys also would be carried out to provide additional white-collar jobs, and that a clearing house had been set up to prevent duplication of activities.

Commenting on the income tax checkup, treasury officials said that in recent years revenue agents have been able to examine only 350,000 of the 700,000 returns sent them for study. Those examined have been returns of larger taxpayers. Now the small taxpayer will be checked. About 1000 people will be employed on the new jobs.

"Extensive Evasions"
Insisting that the liquor check-up would more than pay for itself in extra collections, officials said sample surveys in 10 large cities had shown "extensive evasions," while "certain stores were being used as outlets for bootleg liquor." The inquiry will be made in 90 cities of more than 100,000 population.

The following is a breakdown of the allotment for a national

DEATH LAID TO WOMAN'S ACT

Voluntary incarceration in a small closet in her home at 1533 Pier avenue, Redondo Beach, as a result of delusions of persecution, is believed to have caused the death of Mrs. Dena Wise, 95-year-old wealthy recluse and mother of William Wise, 181 Center street, Anaheim.

The woman, who lived alone, was found in the closet of her home late Tuesday. She died yesterday at Hermosa Redondo hospital. At the time she was discovered police believed that she had been locked in the closet by thugs in an attempt at robbery.

According to police who investigated the case, the woman on other occasions had suffered from delusions of persecution. She evidently had locked herself in the closet periodically during the last few weeks, police said, the condition of the closet indicating that she had been confined there for several days at a time.

Funeral plans have not yet been announced by the son, and it is said that they are being held in abeyance awaiting action of the coroner's office.

LOVE MURDER SUSPECT IS SUICIDE

CHICAGO, Aug. 1. (AP)—A note indicating that Mandeville Zenge, sought for questioning in the mutilation murder of Dr. Walter John Bauer of Kirkville, Mo., had committed suicide was turned over to the police today.

A driver, identified by police as John Giannini, told authorities he found the note in the effects of a passenger he drove to Navy pier on Lake Michigan late last night.

Shown a photograph of Zenge, Giannini said, "I think that's the man I drove to the pier."

The note was signed "Mandeville," and police immediately set out to identify the handwriting as that of the wanted man.

Fails to Give Clue

The discovery was reported just after an inquest into Bauer's death had been continued until August 25.

The doctor's 23-year-old widow failed to provide a clue.

The note, found in a gray suit the passenger left in the cab, said: "I feel Louise will be happier with the doctor than with me."

The note made no mention of the attack on Bauer, who was kidnapped yesterday in Ann Arbor, Mich., and driven to Chicago by his abductor, who performed an emasculation operation with a pocket knife.

Addressed to Father
The note was addressed to "J. Andy Zenge," on North Sixth street, in Canton, Mo. That is the name of Zenge's father, a retired dairyman.

Police said there were spots on the coat, and set out to determine if they were blood stains.

The driver told police the man engaged his cab at a stand in front of a near north side hotel and asked to be driven to Navy pier, extending a half mile out into Lake Michigan.

Arriving at the pier, the driver said his passenger asked him to wait. The driver asked him to leave his fare, and the passenger tossed him a dollar.

Looks for Passenger

When the meter registered $1 the driver went to find his passenger.

Failing to locate him, the driver looked in the back of the cab and found a gray hat and a gray suit. The note was penciled in a notebook found in the coat.

Descriptions broadcast by police said he was wearing clothes of that color.

Zenge, 26-year-old carpenter, had been sought since the dying Bauer gave his name to police as that of a former sweetheart of Bauer's wife.

Bauer was abducted from the Jennings house, Ann Arbor, Mich., hotel, by an "E. L. Jones of Chicago," he said. Two hotel men said pictures of Zenge, furnished by Bauer's widow "looked like" Jones.

Bride Tells Story

Mrs. Bauer, at the inquest today, told how she married Dr. Bauer after an engagement to Zenge, a childhood sweetheart.

Her married life, she testified, lasted three hours. She married Dr. Bauer in Kirkville on July 14, where he taught chemistry at the Kirkville College of Osteopathy and Surgery. She is right superintendent of nurses at Laughlin hospital, connected with the college.

Missouri police learned Zenge had expected to marry Louise on July 17, but three days before that she married Bauer.

Senator Hastings (R., Del.), was the only one voting against the bill.

BONES FOUND NEAR COSTA MESA

A perfectly formed skeleton of a child, believed to have been less than two years of age at the time of its death, has been uncovered by workers in the SERA archeological project on a ranch near Costa Mesa. The little skeleton was found with the knees drawn up to the chest, and the hands resting on the shoulders.

This skeleton, and one other, that of a child believed to have been approximately 12 years of age at the time of its death, will be brought to the Bowers Museum and included with other exhibits depicting early California Indians. In all, there were eight skeletons uncovered in the excavations that have been progressing for the past three weeks.

Among the graves opened was one in which two skeletons of early Indians were found. From the size of the bones, it was believed one was that of a man, and the other a woman. Double burials are not unusual, according to John Winterbourn, who is assisting Mrs. F. E. Coulter, curator at the museum.

One of the most interesting artifacts uncovered is a whistle made from bone. It is in a perfect state of preservation and still whistles. This, with shell beads, ceremonial stones and a spear point, were uncovered in the excavation of the old Indian cemetery.

The cemetery is located on the side of a hill, and is a short distance from an Indian camp site, said to have been one of the largest in Orange county. The burial ground was found by men working at the camp site. At the camp site, five cog stones and an unusually fine matate were found among other old Indian implements.

At present, all of the relics and artifacts unearthed are being stored at the Julia Lathrop Junior high school. The SERA project is under the supervision of W. W. Weiman, with Mrs. Gladys Ashby as director.

FEDERAL FARM CONCILIATOR CLOSING OFFICE

John J. Dwyer, conciliator for Orange county under the Frazier-Lemke farm mortgage moratorium bill which was recently found to be unconstitutional in a recent supreme court decision, is going to return to his farm.

He announced today that business at his office has been so negligible lately that he had decided to close up shop and go to work for himself. Following the recent court decision, Mr. Dwyer continued to keep his office in the federal building here, giving his time and services voluntarily, making adjustments and completing numerous other cases that had started prior to the decision. He is a member of the adjustment committee of the Orange county farm bureau which has been engaged in doing a similar type of adjustment work without pay.

In so far as official adjustment work is concerned, Mr. Dwyer announced, there is no more to be done. After vacating his office in the federal building, Mr. Dwyer will continue with his voluntary adjustment work at his home in Anaheim.

NURSERYMAN HELD IN PERJURY ACTION

Oscar Bruskey, Garden Grove nurseryman, who was arrested and charged with perjury after he had been robbed of $1800 on July 4, was held to answer to the supreme court yesterday after his preliminary hearing in Justice of the Peace K. E. Morrison's court. He will be arraigned on the charge in superior court August 9.

According to the complaint, which charges Bruskey with perjury on two separate counts, he testified in two recent court actions in which his wife was asking for an increase in alimony that he was without funds.

This warrior is covered with bright colored paints. He looks so ferocious that Puffy almost faints.

"I'm happy to see you," he says with a sneer.

Nuptial Mass in Oxnard Church Unites Bernice Callens, Alfred Friedrich

Attendants Are Brother And Sisters

Reception In Clubhouse Follows Rites; Couple to Live In Oxnard

A 9 o'clock nuptial mass yesterday morning in St. Clare's church, Oxnard, united in marriage Miss Bernice Callens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rene Callens of Santa Ana, and Alfred Friedrich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ignatz Friedrich of Oxnard. The Rev. A. Jacobs said the mass, in the presence of 80 relatives and friends.

The bride wore shining ivory satin with a long train, and a halo veil which fell over her gown. She carried a large bouquet of gardenias and lilies of the valley, with lilies of the valley, the bride's favorite flower, tied to the shower streamers.

Miss Irene Callens as her sister's maid of honor wore peach lace and a delphinium blue hat, and carried an armful of talisman roses.

Bridesmaids were Miss Gertrude Friedrich, the bridegroom's sister, and Miss Mary Lagier, cousin of the bride, both wearing delphinium blue frocks similar to that of the maid of honor. They also wore Parisian maline turbans in peach and blue, and carried Biarcliffe roses. Their frocks were entrained.

Brother Is Best Man
Vincent Friedrich attended his brother as best man. Joe Callens and Ignatz Friedrich, brothers of the couple, were ushers.

Oliver Reardon of Ventura, organist, accompanied Mrs. Dorothy Hanley of Oxnard in singing "Ave Maria." He also played a wedding march composed by the bridegroom's aunt, Sister M. Clare, and the usual wedding marches. White flowers and greenery appointed the church.

After the wedding, a turkey dinner was given in the Catholic Woman's clubhouse, which was festive for the occasion with bridal flowers. The long dinner table was centered by a three-layer tower cake topped with a cathedral frieze made by the famous baker, Bill Baker of Ojai.

The bride wore a deep leaf green traveling suit with brown accessories when she left with her husband on a wedding trip through Northern California. They will return to make their home in Oxnard, where Mr. Friedrich is a rancher.

The bride, born in Santa Ana, attended school in Santa Ana and was graduated in '32 from Huntington Beach High school. Since then she has been keeping books for her father. Her husband was educated in Oxnard.

Reception guests in addition to the wedding party included the following from Santa Ana, Oxnard, Huemene, Ventura, Irvine, Anaheim, Norwalk and Camarillo: Messrs. and Mesdames Rene Callens and family, Walter Giesler and children, Elizabeth and Harry, Remie DeJonghe, Jack Thornborrow, Joseph Callens, Gustav Callens, Gaston Giber and daughter, Ida, Joseph Callens and children, Irene and Andrew.

Messrs. and Mesdames Gus Papet, Joseph Schreiner, Pete Donlon, Jules Callens, Ignatz Friedrich and son, Ignatz, Jr., Joseph Friedrich and daughter, Elizabeth, Adolf Friedrich and daughter, Pauline, and son, Ernest, Joseph Voelker, John Dietrich, Anton Borchard and daughter, Bernice, and son, Vincent, John Moring and Jack Teatra.

Mrs. Adolph Callens and daughter, Agnes, Ernest Lagier, Rene Lagier, Miss Clarice Isenor, William Friedrich and daughter, Marie, and sons, Robert and George, and Miss Agatha Kellner.

Gelatin and frozen salads and desserts were served. The bride and groom were in full swing this summer at the Newport club.

JUST BEFORE THE FALL, WEAR THIS

To look smart and as if fall were near at hand, and still to be cool and comfortable, wear a frock such as the cotton rickaby suiting shirtmaker shown above. It's grand for spectator sports, and in monotone crepe or printed satin could go places and fit in nicely for more dressy occasions.

SHIP AHOY! SEASON TO BE BUSY ONE FOR CLUB SAILORS

Newport Harbor Yacht clubmen will be very much at sea this season, starting with their participation in the Pacific Coast Yachting association championship regatta Monday to Friday of next week at San Diego. Secretary Leon S. Heseaman said today.

Those wishing to race with other clubs to the regatta will leave 2A buoy, Los Angeles harbor, Saturday at 12 noon. Power cruisers will start from Rainbow pier, Long Beach, Monday at 12 noon. Commodore Joseph Fellows, Jr., Long Beach Yacht club, P. O. box 157, Wilmington, will be in charge of cruiser entries.

Aug. 23 to 28, Balboa will be the scene of the international star class yacht racing association's championship event. Coast guard boats to take spectators will leave the Newport Harbor and Balboa clubhouses, headquarters for the week. Star skippers of the world will mingle there. Much entertainment is being planned. Saturday evening sports dances are in full swing this summer at the Newport club.

HARMONY BRIDGE CLUB HAS PICNIC

Harmony Bridge club with their families held a picnic at Irvine park Tuesday night for a group of more than 50 persons.

Mrs. Sam Jernigan, president, was assisted by Mmes. R. M. Wyckoff, Sue Henry, and B. A. Dawson.

Following dinner, some of the group joined the J. S. Daughters and DeMolays at their picnic.

This cleansing cream may be massaged into the innermost tissues of the skin through the pores. You will find that its susceptibility to water creates a rich lather which searches the pores for impurities and removes them thoroughly. BEAUTIFUL HANDS can be purchased for only 15c. It contains only pure ingredients which are healthy to the tissues.

SUMMER READINGS ARE OPENED BY BAPTIST WOMEN

Summer missionary reading groups of the First Baptist church assembled for the first of five sessions Monday afternoon when Miss Gertrude Minor of 207 West 19th street was hostess to the Women's Aid section and Mrs. W. A. Atkinson to the girls of the Fahlso Sunday school class.

Miss Ella Vessey of 805 North Broadway will entertain the younger group next Monday at 2 o'clock. Stanley Jones' "Christ's Alternative for Communism" is the book being read. Refreshments were served at the close of Monday's reading.

The Women's Aid section is reading "Prayer," an inspirational book by Halesby, "The Toward a Christian America" by Herma Morse. The home of Miss Minor is the regular meeting place.

The Cook's Own Corner

CHILI SAUCE

By Mrs. F. H. Cloyes
Orange avenue
Ingredients: 18 medium-sized ripe tomatoes, 1 quart ground onions, 2 quarts ground sour apples, 3 red peppers, 1 lb. brown sugar, ½ cup salt, 2 cups vinegar, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, 1 teaspoon allspice, 1 teaspoon nutmeg.
Directions: Put them together in the order above.

JIMMIE DICKSON TO APPEAR IN MOTION PICTURE

Jimmie Dickson, Santa Ana boy and a Burks Dancing Doll, will dance in a "Winterwonderland" sequence in the Kid Karnival motion picture now being sponsored by Los Angeles women's clubs, it was learned today.

Fifteen of the dolls will work in a picture at M-G-M studio next week. They were selected in nationwide tryouts.

'If In Doubt'

R. N.: You ask about making advances to a man. To promote your cause tactfully and unobtrusively is permissible—to run after a man obviously is in poor taste and pointless. If you like, indicate by being pleasant that you enjoy his company and invite him to any sort of party but a twosome.

Irene Boyer Presented Pottery 75 Families Guests for Evening

Franciscan pottery in turquoise blue, a complete set for four, was the addition friends of Miss Irene Boyer made to her hope chest at a shower last night at the home of Mrs. R. A. Lühring of 2007 North Ross street. Miss Boyer is to be married to Robert U. Smith late this month or early in September.

Prizes in the play of bridge which busied the group during the evening went to Miss Pauline Wells and Mrs. E. L. Smith Jr. Decorations followed a pink and blue motif. Bowls of zinnias added color to the room and ice cream molds, centered with a pink and white wedding slipper, were served. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. W. J. Morris, mother of Miss Boyer.

Present were Mmes. Kermit W. Maynard, Forrest Bennett, Palmer Stoddard, Allen Howell, E. L. Smith, Jr., Robert Harmon, Wolcott Noble, Paul Johnson and W. J. Morris of Santa Ana, Mrs. Ann Lockhart of Orange, Mrs. Harry Thornton of Kansas City, Mo., Mrs. Fred Utterback of Huntington Park, Mrs. J. G. McWilliams of Eagle Rock, and the Misses Pauline Wells, Eunice Bright, Lucile Howell, Kathryn Sexton, Norma Wilson, Erlene Farmer, Violet Johnson, Evelyn Fairley, the hostess, and the honoree.

HAWAII RESIDENT ENDS SOJOURN IN SANTA ANA

Leaving today for the first lap of her trip home, Miss Ethel Mitchell of Honolulu concluded a week's stay at the Santa Ana hotel with her father, S. R. Mitchell.

Miss Mitchell, who is business girl's secretary of the Y. W. C. A. in Honolulu, arrived in California July 3 to attend the Asilomar conference and spend a short visit here. She will stop in Portland and Seattle, returning to the islands in September.

Miss Eleanor Crill, daughter of John Crill of garden Grove, who made the trip from Hawaii on the S.S. Malolo with Miss Mitchell, visited with the sojourner at the hotel this morning.

The Thinkers

Wherein women of the community express their views on topics of particular interest to women.

Do you consider summer school for young people worth the cost and effort they have to put into it?

Mrs. Thomas E. Williams: I think if they don't take too difficult a course, it's worthwhile. If it means that a student will get no summer vacation or rest, then it seems unwise.

Miss Martha Ehlén: Sometimes the courses are too concentrated. As a general rule, however, it is well worth a student's time to attend summer school.

Mrs. Fred E. Eare: I think if summer school studies put a student ahead in his vocational training, they're worthwhile. Still, everyone needs a little rest and change. It devolves into a personal problem for each individual.

Mrs. W. C. Dunlap: I believe vacation time should be used as such, unless the student has something to make up, in which case summer school studies are a fine opportunity. If a mother and child plan together, the summer without set studies still need not be wasted.

Girl's Frock Can Be Pretty; Marian Martin Shows How

Marian Martin pleases the little girl who wants to look "pretty" and the mother who wants her to look "neat" by cleverly combining features of both in pattern 9487.

You must admit that collar and smooth yoke are as neat and prim as any could want—so is the tailored front panel releasing into pleats! And little sister will note with glee it has precious puffed sleeves and a perky bow that make her feel as dressed-up as can be. Five pretty buttons make an inexpensive trimming for a dress that's ready for every occasion. Make it of dainty dimity, or sturdier gingham, percale or shantung. Complete, diagrammed Marian Martin sew chart included.

Pattern 9487 may be ordered only in sizes 6, 8, 10, 12 and 14. Size 10 requires 2½ yards 36-inch fabric.

Send 15 cents in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for each Marian Martin pattern. Be sure to write plainly your name, address, the style number and size of each pattern.

The Marian Martin Summer pattern book will lead your way to warm weather chic! From its forty pages view the parade of clothes for every occasion for every member of the family. Designs all beautifully illustrated, patterns all easy to make. Styles for the small girl, the dashing deb, the blushing bride and the mature matron plus some useful hints and some delightful reading. Send for your copy now! Price of book 15 cents. Book and pattern together, 25 cents.

Address orders to The Santa Ana Pattern Department, 217 East Fifth street, Santa Ana.

Seventy-five Santa Ana families who have been meeting for informal get-togethers in the various homes in the past few years were entertained last evening by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gilbert at the Palms ballroom.

Dancing to the music of Mr. Gilbert's orchestra featured the evening's entertainment. Jim Carlson, Earl Lentz, Frank Leeman and Mr. Gilbert were on the social committee for the party.

Guests included Messrs. and Mesdames Earl Lentz, B. L. Lange, A. Heard, C. F. Rathbone, Jr., Stanley Jost, O. Johnson, F. Wurster, R. Keeler, N. Rasher, T. Sitton.

Messrs. and Mesdames William Garvin, L. Cook, Charles Hurd, D. Burk, M. Young, Henry Isenberg, Paul Abraham, John Baxer, L. C. Andrews, H. Cheney, Don Baxter, B. Oliver, C. Buck, T. Morran, William Conklin.

Messrs. and Mesdames G. Forrest, Jim Carlson, Oney Saunders, Kenneth Lee, L. Siddon, J. Casselman, Louis Stevens, Sam Jones, Ray Isenberg, John Luxembourger, W. M. Rice, T. Tourant, P. Banks, P. T. Brightwell, F. Bone.

Messrs. and Mesdames C. Hamaker, Ray Hill, Elmer Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leeman and Mrs. Marie Jost.

RUTH GARDNER COMPLIMENTED WITH SHOWER

Miss Ruth Gardner, who is to be married Sunday to Norbert Megowan, was complimented Tuesday evening by Mrs. Colby McKinney and Miss Eugenia Gilbert with a pottery shower at the McKinney home on Wright street.

Yellow and blue appointments were used by the hostesses in the buffet supper hour. Mrs. E. D. Caskey, mother of Mrs. McKinney, poured coffee.

A complete set of pottery in four hues was given the honoree. Guests also included Miss Geraldine Gilbert, who assisted with the hosting, and Mesdames Roy Griset, Ernest Martin, Robert Fuller, Eldon Watts, Ennis Brough, A. B. Gardner, Leonard Johnson, E. S. Gilbert and Philip Taylor, and Misses Imogene McAuley, Agnes McKinstry, Roselind Schilling, Georgia Megowan and Marian Megowan.

HOSTESS DUO HAS PRETTY LUNCHEON IN CAMERON HOME

Mrs. Lawrence C. Cameron and Mrs. Charles S. Givens shared the hostess honors Tuesday when they entertained in the Cameron home, 2403 Oakmont, at a contract bridge luncheon.

Pert yellow coveis painted by Mrs. Hubert Nall on the place cards at the tables attracted admiration of the guests. Pottery and linens and the table centerpiece of mixed summer flowers followed out a yellow and orchid color motif.

Six tables of contract were in play. Prizes went to Mesdames Claude L. Sleeper, Frank Andrews and D. H. Betten.

Mary Stoddard Philandering Girl Finds Pre-Marriage Mistakes Are Breaking Up Happiness of Family

By MARY STODDARD
It's curious how our sins always manage to catch up with us. We may think we're getting away with it, riding high, wide and handsome, have a grand time living our own lives just as we feel they should be lived.

Sooner or later—inevitable as death and taxes—comes the reckoning. It usually doesn't come in the form we expect. We think we'll be able to pay the piper without pinching our spiritual pocketbooks—but somehow the payment always hurts. And demand for it comes at a time when it's least convenient to pay.

"Worried" is finding that out, now. Many years ago she danced through life—had her affairs and thought she'd paid when she had her first baby. She married the man she thought was the baby's father—only to find out her mistake. Now she'll probably go on paying the rest of her life for her youthful folly. And now that she's having to pay dearly, she doesn't know how to meet the emergency.

Admitted Truth

To do her credit, "Worried" admits that her husband has been pretty fine to her. When she was trapped in her deception, she admitted the truth.

"We split up for about a week. My husband said we all make mistakes, and he would take me back, as he thought a lot of me and my baby.

"Every time I wanted to go out some place in the daytime, he told me if I wanted to go he would take me at night. Everything went along great until a few months ago. My husband has a good job and makes good wages—has a car and spends money to suit himself. I have no say about money whatsoever.

"Now the trouble is my husband wants to go out and leave me home. He would rather I'd be away for weeks at a time so he can pretend he is single and make a hit with other girls. He thinks he is tied down, but really he isn't. We go out every night in the week. He has his lodge, office meetings and sports, so those take up four or five nights a week.

"Now I'm not a bad sport—I love to dance, swim, have a few drinks—we really enjoy the same things. He doesn't want to go with him. He says he doesn't want everyone to know he is married. He wants me to go away all the time, and when I do, he says I come back too soon. But while I'm away he steps out and spends money we really can't afford.

"He wants me to take another trip with the two children. Do you think he wants his freedom? I'm willing to do what's right by him and the children—but I really love my husband very much, and I hate to break up our home. But this not knowing what I should do is driving me crazy."

"You're getting a taste of your own medicine, aren't you, little lady? And it's bitter. Not that I excuse your husband for going out and posing as single. That is not only a stupid, but a dangerous thing for him to do. And it's quite true that he is not at all justified in behaving that way. Since he voluntarily assumed the support of a wife and a family—that family is still his obligation.

"Fight for Home
About the only thing you can do is to stand by and hope that this phase of your life together will pass. As long as you love your husband, I think it would be a mistake to allow your home to be broken up. If it is possible, board the children with relatives for a while and devote your attention to charming your husband all over again. Many mothers get careless when their children demand so much of their time and energy.

Be patient and understanding as it is possible for you to be. Don't nag—and don't demand too much. Do everything you can to make your husband realize that he is still the central interest in your life—and perhaps you can win back the respect and devotion that seem to have strayed for a time.

New Films At Broadway

A new double feature program, with "Old Man Rhythm," a new type of campus musical comedy with Buddy Rogers starred, and "Cheers of the Crowd," an entertaining comedy drama, opens today at the Broadway theater.

George Barbier plays the title role in "Old Man Rhythm" as the father of Rogers who enters college as a freshman in order to keep an eye on his sporting son who is enamored of a campus gold digger and to divert his infatuation to a girl favored by his parents. The cast includes Betty Grable, Barbara Kent, Grace Bradley, Joy Hodges and Evelyn Poe.

Russell Hopton plays the part of a press agent who gets himself and his employers in hot water with one of his publicity gags in "Cheers of the Crowd." Irene Ware has the leading feminine role in the film.

Gable Film To West Coast

The colorful film version of Jack London's story of the Yukon gold rush, "Call of the Wild," was shifted from the Broadway theater, where it has shown for four days, to the West Coast theater today for an extended run. Manager Lester J. Fountain announced.

Clark Gable, Jack Oakie and Loretta Young head the cast, which includes Reginald Owen, Sidney Toler and Katherine DeMille. Gable and Oakie are seen as two buddies seeking gold in Alaska. They rescue Miss Young from the wolves when she is lost on the trail in a blizzard, and learn that her husband has been lost in the Arctic wastelands. She possesses details of a rich lost claim, and the trio joins forces to look for gold.

NO GROUND FOR COMPLAINT

Life is complicated and difficult these days not only for the general mine-run of people, but even for the economic analysts.

Economic analysts usually represent big banks or super-financial institutions of some sort or other, and their work is very important, their conclusions very abstract and involved.

We have just been reading the Guaranty Survey that is put out monthly by the analyst or analysts of the Guaranty Trust Company of New York.

Through most of its 16 pages, it proceeds to show that the business situation is very gloomy. Sharing the wealth, decentralizing of industry, tinkering with inheritance taxes (in an upward direction), taxing big corporation earnings a higher rate than small corporation earnings, raising taxes at all, AAA, and quite a lot of other factors are dwelt upon at great length as destructive of confidence and a menace to business.

Yet, when the analysts get down to the "Business and Financial Conditions" section, we read, "Business has entered the midsummer season at a level of activity that is probably higher than was generally expected a few months ago, or even a few weeks ago." June was good, and so is July.

"Partly because of this favorable showing," adds the Survey, "business confidence appears to have suffered no setback." Electric power production has risen to a new summer record. Construction has shown encouraging signs. "A continued large volume of new security issues" is reported. Bank suspensions last year were fewer than in any other year since 1920. Etc., etc.

Such contradictions doubtless vex and maybe perplex the analysts. But if we have to choose between conditions theoretically bad yet actually good, on the one hand, or theoretically good and actually bad, on the other, we're all for the first mentioned set-up. Seeing that's what these analysts present, more power to 'em!

REGULARS VERSUS EPICS

WASHINGTON advices are to the effect that Upton Sinclair and Hamilton H. Cotton will not be considered by the democratic party of California when it comes time to selecting delegates to the 1936 national convention.

Cotton is said to be unsatisfactory from the standpoint of party regularity because he bolted the party ticket last year and supported the republican nominee, while the persistent criticism of President Roosevelt by Upton Sinclair disqualifies him.

It would appear that this arrangement places Senator McAdoo in a strategic position, although he and Cotton have been close political associates. It is understood that McAdoo favors Culbert I. Olson for chairman of the state democratic committee, and that the selection of convention candidates be left largely in the hands of California's democratic congressmen who can meet the test of party loyalty.

In this respect Congressman John Stephen McGroarty will be unable to qualify, and judging from his independent attitude during his first term, he is indifferent as to future political fortune.

On the other hand Sinclair makes the prediction that the regular democratic organization will not have control of the party affairs and that the EPIC group will be in power. All of which makes the coming state convention an interesting contemplation.

GOVERNOR MERRIAM

GOVERNOR MERRIAM was in high spirits Tuesday when he visited Orange county. He made three speeches and seemed to enjoy every one of them. He is a "folsky" man besides being a good fence mender and a shrewd politician than many give him credit for. His droll thrusts at Senator Nels Edwards, Ham Cotton and others who have crossed him on various occasions brought many a laugh at the Rotary club luncheon, the city hall cornerstone laying and again at the associated chamber of commerce meeting at Laguna.

But the quality that impressed his hearers Tuesday was his apparent grasp of state problems. His speeches displayed careful study and painstaking effort to find satisfactory answers to various annoying questions with which he constantly is confronted during these unsettled days. He has a good memory. He reaches his hearers in a simple fashion, explaining various issues in a manner so elementary that the uninformed are able to understand.

The governor has gone off on various tangents, but in spite of his mistakes, it is evident he has tried and tried hard. There is always a grain of comfort in that.

SWELTERING MEMORIES

TO MANY of us who are Californians by adoption, press reports of heat in the midwest are not disturbing, nor do the dispatches bring any new information. The memory of sweltering days and suffocating nights has not faded into the realms of amnesia. Kinked railroad rails, prostrations, and human discomfort still pass in panoramic form, and it required no press report to again present the picture of climatic vicissitudes.

About the only value this weather news has to us is that by comparison it accentuates our appreciation of the equitable and comfortable climate we now enjoy. One often hears the remark that you cannot live on climate. Let us so stipulate, but it still remains that we can live with it, and in comfort and appreciation.

When we take into account the few days which are often mislabeled disagreeable, the justification for any complaint at all is cause for amazement to those who have gone through the heated summers and the rigorous winters of the midwest.

Whimsies of O. O. McIntyre

Joseph Hergesheimer is likely literature's most thorough-going hedonist. More than any other writer of his time he has a gusto for the fleshpots, Pennsylvanian patina! He knows choice wines by a fleet whiff and a gourmet's say he has the most exacting palate this side the Atlantic.

At 55, he lives the true life of a country gentleman at his large estate, Dover House in a Philadelphia suburb. He is up at dawn to tramp through the hills wearing a bizarre and tweedy turnout. He has written a book telling how he spent seven painstaking years furnishing Dover House.

Those who know say his taste is superb. Once, for instance, he was looking for a certain Virginia serving table. There was only one to meet the specifications. But no one seemed to know where it was. Hergesheimer combed the country and found it in a log cabin up a lost creek.

No other man has had such a profound influence in the present quest of the colonial. He was another accomplished writer to face the high blank wall, writing for seven years before wangling an acceptance. In view of his opulence of expression this is regarded by many as an indictment against editorial judgment.

Mary Pickford has not been the only actress to turn fervently to religion in the twilight of a career. Mrs. Fiske became a devout student of the Bible in her final days. In letters to her most intimate friends she enclosed a glit-edge card bearing the 91st psalm, which she loved. Valdeska Suratt, a beauty whose back was as celebrated as Chaplin's walk, became an ardent student of religious works and amassed a notable library. The fliberty Eva Tanguay turned to several mental sciences of a religious nature and found calm.

Feeling like Methuselah note: The talk turned to other days, other players. Someone mentioned Dolores and her peacock costume in The Follies. After listening awhile a young man in his early 30's inquired: "Dolores who?"

Art Frank, last of the chin-piece comics, has been having his first fling in London along with his theatrical engagement. He finds he is as much of a Silas on the loose as he is on the stage. At an A.B.C. where he asked for pie and coffee, he got tea and a meat pie.

He is a tart. Then a waitress in another place as the meal neared the end inquired: "D'wanta trifle?" He whispered, "Dumb-jerking to the lady by his side: 'Nix, this is the wife.' Trifle is a pudding."

Wilton Lackey used to tell of the American-born Italian entering a shop in the Burlington Arcade for a safety razor. The clerk said he had a fine one for a guinea. "No wise-cracks," said the patron, "let's see all the kinds you got."

Bob Reud, Brummel of the press agents and with a Social Register entree, is turning a lingering convalescence from pneumonia into a playwriting effort in a lodge in North Carolina. All his adult years he has wanted to try his hand at the game but never had time. Many crack playwrights have flowered out of convalescence. Noel Coward was acting, writing songs and revue skits, when an illness sent him to a nursing home. During the tedium, he wrote his first dramatic effort. His fellow sophisticate, Frederic Lonsdale, was similarly inspired while on the mend. Gene Walter was not only broke but ill when, in desperation, he clicked with his first play.

Thingumabobs: Herbert Marshall is known to his intimates as "Bart." Ethel Barrymore is writing her memoirs. Huey Long with his friends pushes peas on his fork with his fingers but at a tea table holds his cup expertly.

Eleanor Patterson, Washington newspaper editor, gathers together the smartest celebrity crowds for dinner. John Hays Hammond is an ardent collector of the "fartories." George M. Cohan's Japanese valet Mike is a grand opera fan. John Farrar is the only modern poet to become a success in business. Hannen Swaffer, London critic, is to edit a bombastic weekly in New York with a lot of capital behind it.

She was a jet-bonneted old lady on a swaying bus top, far up on Park avenue. As they rode past a block of busy buildings an out-of-town lady across the aisle inquired: "What are all those factories?" Sniffed the jet-bonneted lady: "Oh, a lot of whisky breweries."

ACTION DRAWS FIRE

SAN JOSE, (AP)—Enraged when she was served with papers for divorce from her 72-year-old husband, Dominik Ferrant, Mrs. Rafaela Ferrant, 30 years old, allegedly poured several cans of gasoline over her home and set it afire. Police Chief J. N. Black, who charged Mrs. Ferrant with arson, said she signed a written confession.

The Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON and ROBERT S. ALLEN

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—Nothing has been said about it publicly, but there is deliberate political strategy behind the job Roosevelt is bestowing on that broad-bosomed gentleman from Alabama, former Senator "Tom-tom" Heflin.

Officially Heflin is to be assistant to the administrator of the Atlantic division of the Federal Housing administration. Actually, however, Heflin's interest in housing will be about as much as his interest in early Etruscan pottery. His mission, it is hinted, will be something else again.

The Atlanta division of the FHA includes several southern key states, among them Georgia and Louisiana. Ruler of the first blatant, red galloped Governor Gene Talmadge, czar of the latter is the inoffensive Huey Long. Both are violent administration foes.

Right there is where "Tom-tom" comes in. As a rabble-raiser he is a match for Talmadge and the Kingfish any day. When it comes to ringing the changes on a political gathering, the bulky Alabamian is in a class by himself.

He is expected to tour Georgia and Louisiana, making a number of speeches during which he will give Gene and Huey a dose of their own medicine.

HORNET'S NEST

AS an old hand in Washington, Comptroller General McCaill should have known better than to have provoked the National Woman's party.

He did this by persuading the house appropriations committee to include $4,150,000 in the deficiency bill for enlargement of his offices.

Later the senate appropriations committee zoomed the original $4,150,000 to $11,500,000 and proposed the construction of an entirely new building.

Probably even this would have slipped through without challenge—but for one grave error. McCaill planned to locate his new structure in the block near the senate office building where stands the historic mansion occupied by the National Woman's party. The building is one of the few genuine colonial landmarks left in Washington. It was built by a member of the Lord Baltimore family, and in the early days of the capital was the scene of many brilliant gatherings.

So when the ladies of the NWP discovered their treasured domicile in danger they stormed into action.

Even under ordinary circumstances they are among the most effective congressional buttonholers in the country. On this issue they were irresistible.

THE RESULT WAS DECEITFUL

When McCaill's item in the bill was reached, practically the whole senate rose in ire and denounced it. Then, having soundly castigated the proposal and taken some swipes at McCaill during the process, the senate not only turned thumbs down on the $11,500,000 grant, but also threw out the house's original provision for a paltry $4,150,000.

Twenty-Five Years Ago

AUGUST 1, 1910

REDLANDS.—Twenty-one thousand dollars is to be expended in protection work and reforestation in the San Bernardino mountains next year if the present plans of the forest service and the tri-counties reforestation committee carry. Francis Cuttle of Riverside outlined the plans at a meeting of the board of supervisors Monday.

A celluloid collar, left hanging over a lamp, was the cause of a small blaze last night at the home of J. W. Miller, 1131 West Third street. The fire boys answered the call, but couldn't find much of anything but smoke after they arrived.

The officers, drill team and other members of the Santa Ana lodge, Fraternal Brotherhood, went over to Tustin Saturday evening to institute a lodge of the order in that pretty little city. J. M. McGlothlin, being the organizer, worked up the charter membership.

Work began this morning on excavation for the new armory building on Birch street between Third and Fourth streets, and plowing and scraping is now full swing. The building is to be 65 feet wide and two stories in height.

One Man's Opinion

By Duncan Ellsworth Clark

EDITOR'S NOTE—Here is an informative, analytical daily feature on current topics. The opinions expressed in this column are not necessarily the same as those held by The Journal.

"Death Drives With the Drunken Driver"

SAN FRANCISCO.—A traffic safety campaign is in process. Drinking drivers are pilloried. Police warnings are conspicuously posted "Death Drives With the Drunken Driver." "If You Drive, Don't Drink." "If You Drink, Don't Drive." Such ingenious phrasings pretend to call the attention of motorists to the trite observation that gasoline and alcohol don't mix.

And while the police zealously try to protect life and property from the tipsy driver and reduce the appalling death-rate, scores of liquor shops dispense their wares in the most enticing manner. Liquor is manufactured for consumption. The revenue apologetics want the money, and such money can flow in only if liquor is sold. The business interests behind the whole thing want more profits obtained by stimulating consumption of their product. It all seems so absurdly silly, flaunting death-dealing poisons before alcoholic weaklings and condemning them for partaking of the allurements spread seductively on every side.

Up, and to shaving with razor-knife, and do yell at Dame Juice: "My razor is awfully dull; I can hardly shave with it." And she doth reply: "Why, darling, you don't mean to tell me your beard is tougher than the linoleum!"

A fox on the pretty creature. Anon to building a bird house in a tree in front of the beach cabin, and Dame Juice doth shout: "What are you doing up there—building a bird house?" And I do retort: "No, zany, I'm erecting a service station for flying fish." And Lord! I do laugh so heartily at mine own repartee, I do fall out of the tree, but no harm done. . . . And so to work.

Toodle-doo and pip-pip.

SKINNY SKRIBBLES

Around and About Town

With C. F. (Skinny) SKIRVIN

Uneasy introduction. Looks like "little man, you'll have a busy day." No one can greet the sunrise with placidity when the triumvirate consists of Virgil Clem, Don Collier and Johnny Lake. They wanted to relocate the city hall; weren't satisfied with Tuesday's exercises. Said it took too many republicans to eulogize an expenditure of democratic money. So the services were momentarily interrupted by a pretentious Lincoln which whirled by with all the eclat of an administration deficit. However, Ham Cotton rescued the program, made it safe for American democracy, and divided the proceeds with Governor Merriam.

Reporter asks my opinion as to how many people attended the dedication. When I inquired if he wanted a newspaper estimate, a political forecast, or just an accomplished prevarication, he said the latter would do, and I told him he asked the right man. He claimed there were 2,000 present, and I think he's right. I saw three of 'em myself.

My congratulations to Sol Finley, Horace Head, Ham Cotton and Billy Martin, who in the face of overwhelming republican odds, emulated the boy who stood on the burning deck, and stayed with the deck until they put the lid on the corner stone. That took real courage.

Over to a service station and listen to Don Graves hum a funeral dirge. I'm not congratulating the vocalization, but the selection was appropriate. Either Larry Fricker is a fiend for punishment, or else he doesn't understand music. He stayed all through Don's spasm.

Thought it only neighborly to inquire about a friend across the street. I've heard of the early bird and the worm. Well, this party wormed himself out of the office and flew away before the close of the day melted his dynamic energy. Now there's an idea. Get all your work done before the sun starts to beat down your resistance.

Gene Kahen burns up the cement between Los Angeles and Santa Ana to buy my lunch and gets the disappointment of his life. Found out that the customary 10 cents for soup had been recklessly spent before he arrived. Gene said he would have been in time only he had trouble with the clutch and a traffic cop, changed one tire and cursed another, and anyway he wasn't trying to get here on time in the first place. Now, I ask you, would you leave that fellow's name in your date book, or just tell him?

What's wrong with this sentence: "Vacationist leaves the United States and goes to Canada, and what is Canada's loss is our gain."

Understand Congressman Sam Collins aired his way over to Washington. Was content to stay where the cool slogan suits an invitation to rest and refresh yourself. So he hurries into the torrid heat of the Potomac and the forensic contest of partisan politics. Throwing a little vitriol debate into the national controversy seems to be a temptation. However, the more information that comes out of Washington the more I am convinced that it's a good place to be from.

John Galanus has returned from the Bay region. He had a vacation coming so he decided to go north, not having much more space to follow Horace Greeley's advice, unless he hired a boat. Haven't had an opportunity to inquire about the house, or its accessibility, but there still remains plenty of time. John finally weakened and came home, but why he wants to drift in at 3 o'clock in the morning remains unexplained, unless it's the San Francisco custom.

On the relief. Client comes in who reports shoe clamoring for more room. Making some progress. All the skin worn off one heel, so what to do. Either throw shoe away or make other arrangements. That's it. Other arrangements were made and the relief department sends one more customer skipping along, and the world looks brighter and the lad is happier.

Be sure the mailing list will find you out. The local postoffice is so efficient that I can get mail at five different places, and can do better than that if I wanted to board with Sheriff Jackson. Sometimes the letters go to my box, other times the house, mail still arrives addressed to The Times, others the Bulletin and occasionally a tire shop, but by golly, I "git 'em," and it only shows you can't get away from the letter carrier. If they do not find you it's your fault. They are a good bunch.
